

EDUCATORS RISING

MISSISSIPPI

State Conference Dress Code

- Opening Ceremonies
 - Students can wear chapter t-shirts and khaki or black pants
 - No shirts can be cut or tied to show skin
 - Pants should not have holes
 - Guys should always have pants pulled up
 - Students should be respectful of the campus in dress attire, no short skirts, spaghetti strapped shirts, low cut or revealing clothing should be worn.
 - Advisors should check students before bringing them on campus to make sure they are in dress code.
 - Students not in dress code will be asked to return to the hotel and change into appropriate attire.
- Competition
 - Professional attire should be worn during competition
 - “You look good, you feel good, you present good!”
 - Good professional attire is proven to boost confidence!
 - Dress for Success
 - Students should be dressed as if they are going to a job interview.
 - 10 Points WILL be deducted for students not in Professional Business Attire
- Closing/Awards Ceremony
 - Business professional

- Wear your best dress for the awards ceremony
- Advisors should check students before bringing them on campus to make sure they are in dress code. Students not in dress code will be asked to change.
- Please remember we will be taking pictures, to post on our state Facebook page, and represent the organization and showcase your student's success.
- If it is not allowed at school, it most definitely isn't allowed at the conference.
- Students should be dressed as if they are going to a job interview.
- On campus while not competing should be business casual.
 - Students can wear chapter t-shirts and khaki or black pants
 - No shirts can be cut or tied to show skin
 - Pants should not have holes
 - Guys should have pants always pulled up
 - Students should be respectful of the campus in dress attire, no short skirts, spaghetti strapped shirts, low cut or revealing clothing should be worn.
 - Advisors should check students before bringing them on campus to make sure they are in dress code. Students not in dress code will be asked to return to the hotel and change into appropriate attire.

Students should represent excellence!